1. Germanischer Lloyd, Berlin, has been given a contract by the SMA in Karlshorst to make final inspection of 1,000 lifeboats and 800 fishing craft, including Logger and Seiner, now being built by the Werft Ingenieurbau, Stralsund, in small ports along the Baltic. The Werft Ingenieurbau is under contract with the SMA to construct twenty-eight lifeboats and an unspecified number of fishing craft each month. Production should be completed by the end of 1948.
2. The lifeboats, which contain air tanks, are designed for use on large steamers and are being built at a cost of 20,000 RM each. The fishing cutters cost 120,000 RM each and the Logger and Seiner 200,000 RM each.
